Real Neighbors

Are you acquainted with the people who live on your street? Probably not, if you live in the city. This is one of the pleasures of living in the country -you become acquainted with real neighbors, who sympathize with you in your sorrow and are happy with you in your joys.

The Suburban Towns of

are made up of just such people. It seems a small thing but means much to travel back and forth on the train with good fellows who slap you on the back and make you feel welcome.

LIVE ON LONG ISLAND and feel that you are somebody.

WILL TRY LIEUT, HIGGINS AT OPEN COURT MARTIAL

Counter Charges of Sixty-Ninth's Officer Against Col. Conley Are Disapproved.

Lieut. Thaddens Higgins of Company E. Sixty-ninth Infantry, National Guard, will be tried before an open court martial to-night at the headquarters of the dat to-night at the headquarters of the First Resiment of Front Actillery, No. 171 Chormont Avenue, Browskyn.

It is charged that he failed to obey orders to have certain records of his company relating to the annual inspection and missier by officers of the army and National Guard ready at an appointed time.

The charges were brought by Col. Louis D. Conley, commander of the regiment. The Leutemant, in return, preferred counter charges, which were disapproved after investigation as worth-bess and groundless.

Lieut. Higgins served as a private, corporal and regimental sergeant major in the Sixth United States Cavalry from 1886 to 1897.
